Accommodation for families with children in private holiday house in the country

The "Bôrka" holiday house is situated in the picturesque valley between the Low Fatra and the Strážov Hills at the edge of the small village of Fačkov in the middle of a peaceful piece of land.

You will spend a pleasant winter or summer holiday in the house with your families. The house can be hired in one-week cycles beginning and ending on Saturdays. The building includes a safe and sufficiently large space for putting aside the skiing equipment. The house is accessible by car, which will also find a safe place to park.

The summer house was built in the years 1999-2000 of high-standard building materials with special attention to the comfort of the accommodated. The building is nicely furnished with wooden (spruce) furniture, a hot-air fireplace, and gas central heating supplied with heating gas by the PROBUGAS company.

The house is equipped with 2 attic rooms with three beds + 1 extra bed each, and a common room with a fireplace, a TV set, SAT, and a HiFi-tower on the ground floor. The capacity of the kitchen with complete equipment and a dining corner is designed for use by all guests. There is a separate WC, a bidet, a shower and a hall. In the summer the visitors may use the garden seating capacity by the open fireplace, in the winter the ski depository, and there is also a bicycle shed for cyclists. The house also has its own parking place for two cars. Sauna opened on 1 June 2001.

The accommodation capacity is 4-8 persons, including children. The accommodation cycles are 7 days long. The price per person is 350,-Sk. The object is new, built in the style of our grandparents, timber-framed. In winter gas central heating comfortably heats the whole house.
